

Expand

https://tucson.com/business/giving-back-in-southern-arizona/article_7ba5ffb2-f7fd-55a9-b92d-8a64cb02465b.html

Giving back in Southern Arizona

Giving back in Southern Arizona

Arizona Daily Star Jun 25, 2018 Updated Jul 20, 2018

The Tohono O'odham Gaming Enterprise presented $135,000 to the beneficiaries of their 2018 Desert Diamond Casinos Golf Classic.

Courtesy Desert Diamond Casinos

- Desert Diamond Casinos: The Tohono O’odham Gaming Enterprise presented a total of $135,00 to the beneficiaries of their 2018 Desert Diamond Casinos Golf Classic. This year’s recipients are the Tohono O’odham Nation Department of Health and Human Services Dialysis Advocate Program; the Tohono O’odham Nation Cultural Center and Museum; and Ha:san Educational Services, which operates a community-based school for Native youth in Southern Arizona.
- Southwest Women’s Charitable Club: From June 2017 to May 2018 the organization awarded a $3,250 scholarship to a University of Arizona nursing student and $1,000 each to Youth on Their Own, Project Linus (Tucson) and Live Theater Workshop, for a total of $6,250.00. Over the holidays, the club also provided toys to the Toys for Tots Campaign.

Submit items about charitable donations by local businesses or nonprofits to business@tucson.com; please use Giving Back in the email subject line and include photos in JPEG format. Sign up for a weekly update of business headlines at Tucson.com/business.

MORE INFORMATION

📷 +2

Giving back in Southern Arizona

- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona
- Giving back in Southern Arizona