

PUBLIC ALLIES ARIZONA

Tucson and Phoenix are now accepting applications

Public Allies Arizona, a 10 month AmeriCorps program run by the ASU Lodestar Center, is currently recruiting leaders from our communities that fully represent the breadth and depth of the communities we serve in. We are looking for leaders from diverse backgrounds with different skills and abilities. We believe that Everyone Leads!

Benefits include:

- $15,100 (gross) stipend total
- $6,095 Eli Segal Education Award for college, vocational training or eligible student loans
- Individual mentoring and peer-to-peer coaching
- Lifelong connections with their Ally cohort and alumni networks
- Healthcare benefits, childcare stipend (if eligible)
- Student loan deferment for qualified federal student loans while in program

To be considered for the Public Allies Arizona 2021 - 2022 cohort, apply by July 15, 2021.

Cohort dates are September 1st 2021 – June 30th 2022
